CHIC SKI RESORTS

St Moritz is so old-school. Join the new alpine aristos at these rocking resorts

Lewis Hamilton

The Formula One charity ski event will kick off in Villars

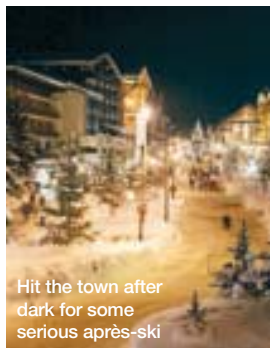

Chalet RoyAlp Hotel & Spa

THE FAST LANE

Race to the Swiss village of Villars (villars.ch) on January 16 to 18 to see the cream of the Formula One world whizz down the slopes for the annual charity Ski Grand Prix (bcv24hvillars.com), which will see Jacques Villeneuve, David Coulthard, Lewis Hamilton and Eddie Jordan go head to head. Stay at the chic new five-star Chalet RoyAlp Hotel & Spa (+4124 495 9090, royalp.ch). Doubles from Dhs2,440.

The picturesque scenery at Val D'Isère

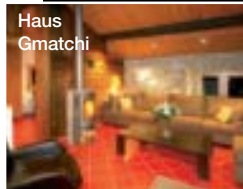

Hit the town after dark for some serious après-ski

APRÈS-SKI COOL

Snow bunnies keen on après ski, such as Jemima Khan, party in France's liveliest luxe resort, Val D'Isère (valdisere.com). Those in the know head to Dick's Tea Bar (dicksteabar.com/valdisere) for early evening drinks before moving on to hip new club Doudoune (+33 6 11 57 55 16). Get ready for a night out with a pampering session at the resort's best spa, in the Tsanteleina Hotel (+33 4 79 06 12 13, tsanteleina.com). Doubles from Dhs930.

THE ROYAL TREATMENT

Twenty- and thirty-somethings from old-money families leave Klosters to their parents and zip off to Zermatt (zermatt.ch), where they swish down the Matterhorn, party at hilarious Grampis's (grampis.ch), recover at the Mirabeau spa (hotel-mirabeau.ch), and bed down in cosy, chocolate-box Haus Gmatchi chalet, from Dhs4,570 per person (+44 (0)844 557 3119, vip-chalets.com). But try not to gawp at Prince William and Kate Middleton out on the resort's slopes.
