

A private camp in the Sahara dunes, dotted with palms and camels.

Marrakesh's spice markets and vibrant square.

MARVELOUS MOROCCO

Have you ever imagined mountain biking through Mount Toubkal National Park in the Atlas Mountains, dining under ancient olive trees, exploring of lush valleys of Berber farmlands or flying in a private helicopter over golden dunes to your own private, luxury tented camp in the Sahara Desert? The bespoke travel company, Blue Parallel, is now offering those experiences and more to those looking to discover the exotic Kingdom of Morocco. This slice of North Africa offers the luxuries and efficiency of a modern country, while preserving its cultural treasures and heritage, which are still intricately woven into the fabric of its society today. Its harmonious fusion of civilizations and densely rich history marks its cities and regions with different shades of this wealthy heritage. Morocco's rocky plateaus, steep valleys, soaring mountains, and mighty desert offer a vast playground for the true adventure traveler. Visit BlueParallel.com for more information. ///

Spartina 449 Sea La Vie necklace

Accessories Worth Packing

STYLE

Caroline Hill cutout clutch in mint

Pedre grosgrain ribbon, plaid and stripe watch

Bromstad + Naturalizer "Ursela" flat in cream floral

SHOP THE LOOK AT LIVINGMAGAZINE.NET. ALL ITEMS UNDER $100!