STREAMLINED CAMERA BAG

Whether you're traveling across the country or around the world, Lowepro's line of Pro Runner AW Roller/Backpacks make transporting bulky photo equipment hassle free. At the airport, roll the bag from terminal to terminal. When you need to carry it through a crowd, convert the roller to a backpack. Rainflap lids and a built-in all-weather cover offer protection from the elements, and a convenient tripod mount system allows you to secure a tripod at the front of the pack. Many models are carry-on compatible and can fit a DSLR with attached lens, additional lenses, accessories and a laptop. store.lowepro.com

BAJA CUISINE

At luxury oceanfront resort Capella Pedregal in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, indulge in a four-day culinary experience that celebrates the best in locally and globally inspired cuisine. The hotel's annual Food & Wine Festival, held from July 9-13, is a gourmand's ideal getaway.

Limited to only 120 guests, the festival has a singularly intimate feel. Guests enjoy meals and cooking demonstrations from internationally renowned chefs throughout the weekend, as well as two wine tastings, a tequila seminar, a gourmet barbecue and an after-party with live music. The vacation package also includes four nights and five days in an ocean-view room or suite, as well as round-trip airport transfers by private car.

In this casually elegant beachside setting, you'll mingle with celebrity chefs and like-minded culinary aficionados while you discover a delicious and unforgettable new way to explore the world of food. capellahotels.com/cabosanlucas
