IGUAZU FALLS LUXURY TOURS, BRAZIL & ARGENTINA

Combine Rio de Janeiro with the most spectacular falls on Earth

JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Your Iguazu Falls luxury tour in Brazil and Argentina begins in the spirited city of Rio de Janeiro. Enjoy an unforgettable introduction to the city's peaks and beaches as you soar above the iconic Christ the Redeemer statue in a private helicopter. Spend the following days biking along Rio's famous beaches, visiting the bohemian neighborhood of Santa Teresa, and learning about Brazil's fascinatingly diverse history with a trip to the colonial center. Your luxury travel continues in southern Brazil, where you will experience the majestic Iguazu Falls, located in a lush sub-tropical rainforest that is home to 500 butterfly species and over 2,000 types of plants. Get up close and personal to the falls during a thrilling zodiac ride before visiting the catwalks of the national park after it has closed to the public. Your private tour of Iguazu Falls will also allow you to witness the incredible vistas of the Argentine side of the falls, including the "circuito inferior" and famous "Devil's Throat" cascade, so that you can experience everything this natural wonder of the world has to offer.

PRIVATE TOUR OF RIO DE JANEIRO & THE IGUAZU FALLS

Please note this private Brazil & Argentina tour is an example, as all of our luxury journeys are custom-made. You will find below a summary outline.

Please contact us to start planning your custom-made private adventure of a lifetime.

Rio de Janeiro (3 nights)

Upon arrival in Rio de Janeiro, you will be greeted by your personal host and transported by private vehicle to one of Rio's 5-star luxury properties. Options include the iconic Copacabana Palace or the avant-garde Fasano hotel in Ipanema.

Accompanied by your personal guide, start off your luxury Rio tour by biking along the picturesque beaches of Ipanema, Leblon and Copacabana. The next day, enjoy a hiking excursion on one of the many accessible mountains that surround Rio, such as Pedra Bonita, Pico da Tijuca and Pedra Gavea. Later, head to the Lagoon of Rio where you will board your private helicopter to tour the "cidade Maravilhosa." Circle around Christ the Redeemer (Mount Corcovado) and end your trip at the base of Sugarloaf Mountain where you will continue by cable-car to this landmark which offers incredible views of the city and bay.

On your third day, learn about Rio's colonial past which was originally the seat of the Portuguese Empire and later visit the eclectic artists' neighborhood of Santa Teresa. Continue your discovery of this great city with a visit to the Pequena Africa neighborhood, where you can visit a number of sites that highlight the African history and legacy in Rio de Janeiro.

Without a doubt, no trip to Rio is complete without music! On one of your evenings, stop at Rio Scenarium to enjoy Rio by night and listen to soothing live bossa nova or lively samba music.

Iguassu Falls (2 nights)

On arrival at the domestic airport, you will be greeted by your personal host and escorted to the Hotel das Cataratas on the Brazilian side of the falls. Your luxury Iguassu tour starts with an exhilarating high-speed zodiac ride as you edge close to the roaring rapids of the San Martin and Three Musketeer Falls and see the mist dissipate. Later, after the park is closed to the public, explore the Brazilian side of the falls providing panoramic views of the natural wonder.

The next day, cross the border into Argentina and experience up close and personal views from the Argentine side (Circuit Inferior). Here you will also have the option to enjoy a private train ride to the spectacular Devil's Throat. After the excursions, relax by the pool and enjoy delicious meals.

On your final morning, embark on a thrilling helicopter tour offering breathtaking aerial views of the 275 cascading waterfalls below. Seeing the falls from the sky is one of the most rewarding ways to end your experience in the jungle!

ABOUT BLUE PARALLEL

Blue Parallel is a bespoke luxury travel boutique.

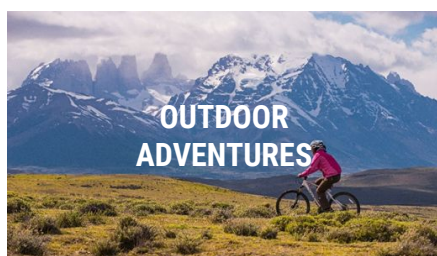

Our mission is to take discerning, time-constrained travelers to the most spectacular natural and cultural wonders of Latin America, the Mediterranean, and the Polar Regions.

We create private, tailor-made journeys that focus on UNESCO World Heritage Sites, insider access experiences, and extraordinary outdoor adventures.

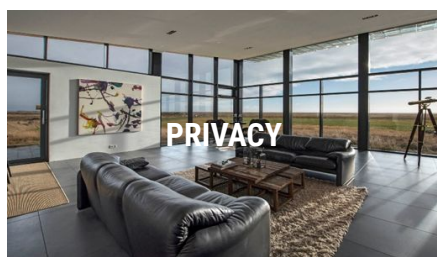

Since launching in 2003, we have become the go-to service for luxury travelers searching for top-of-the-line experiential journeys. We have been selected as an A-list Top Travel Advisor by Travel + Leisure every year since 2009, and are proudly part of the leading luxury travel network Virtuoso and their Ultraluxe Community (a by-invitation-only membership for the industry's most exclusive services and providers). We have hosted numerous eminent travelers since our inception and are frequently featured in prestigious international publications.

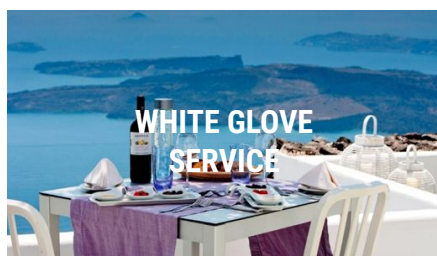

Blue Parallel journeys feature breathtaking outdoor adventures led by expert guides or accomplished athletes. Scuba diving in the Belize Reef, biking through Berber villages in the Atlas Mountains, ice-trekking on the Perito Moreno Glacier, dog sledding in Lapland, rafting on the Pacuare River in Costa Rica, and hiking the fjords of Norway are only a few examples of the extraordinary outdoor adventures we incorporate in our tailor-made itineraries. We take great satisfaction in designing custom-made adventures of a lifetime.

At Blue Parallel, we open doors to unique opportunities that match our travelers' interests. Our team travels year-round, seeking out the most intriguing insider experiences. Over the years, we have developed invaluable relationships with esteemed scholars, acclaimed artists, Olympic athletes, renowned chefs, directors of historical and natural landmarks, as well as with local leaders in politics and business, to name just a few examples.

Privacy has always been a top priority in all aspects of a Blue Parallel journey. Exclusive accommodations range from remote, fully-serviced villas in Iceland, a lighthouse on a private island in Norway, or a luxury private camp in the Sahara Desert. Examples of private custom experiences include an after-hours tour of the Alhambra in Andalusia, chartering a luxury yacht in the Galapagos Islands, or taking a private train ride to Machu Picchu. We can provide all these ultimate exclusive experiences and more so that our travelers can have the option to enjoy some of the world's most spectacular sights without the crowds.

Blue Parallel travelers are assigned a dedicated team comprised of:

- A personal travel expert
- A personal host in each destination
- Expert on-site guides and scholars
- Behind-the-scenes logistical experts to monitor every step of the journey

We are on call for our travelers 24-hours a day during their trip, ensuring a smooth and stress-free experience. Whatever happens, our team is one step ahead, and we provide the flexibility to change the program during the journey, if need be.

CERTAINTY IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Blue Parallel's expertise and our obsession with details offer certainty in an uncertain world. We have almost 2 decades of experience handling unforeseen circumstances, and the recent pandemic has only increased the significant value of having our dedicated teams offer limitless support to our travelers before, during, and after their journeys.
