

ANDALUCIA LUXURY TOURS, SPAIN

Exclusive insider access experiences in Southern Spain

JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Begin your Andalucia luxury tour in Granada, where you will get a taste of the country's Moorish history when you visit the Arab Quarter and the famous Alhambra, where you have the exclusive option to visit after it has closed to the public for the day. Your private tour of Andalucia continues in Cordoba, where your expert guide will accompany you to highlights such as the Casa de Sefarad and the city's iconic Mezquita, a Cathedral that was built as a Mosque. Next, visit notable landmarks in Seville such as the Giralda Minaret and Plaza de España. During your stay in Seville, take a day-trip to the countryside, where Blue Parallel can arrange insider access experiences such as attending the famous equestrian show at Jerez from VIP seats, visiting a traditional bull farm, or touring a top jamón ibérico producer. Your luxury travel in Andalucia ends in Ronda, a destination Hemingway treasured for its quaint streets and dramatic seaside cliffs. There, take a scenic bike ride through one of the region's picturesque "white villages," where you will have beautiful views of the surrounding countryside and mountains.

PRIVATE TOUR ANDALUCIA

Please note this private Andalusia tour is an example, as all of our luxury journeys are custom-made. You will find below a summary outline.

Please contact us to start planning your custom-made private adventure of a lifetime.

Granada (2 nights)

Upon arrival to Granada, your personal host will take you to Palacio de los Patos, a refurbished 19th century palace. Enjoy a guided walk through the Arab quarter (a UNESCO World Heritage Site) and other significant neighborhoods. In the evening, enjoy a tapas tour with your personal guide, tasting the authentic dishes of the region.

On the second day of your private Andalucía tour, see some of Granada's main highlights such as the Cathedral and the Royal Chapel. No luxury Andalucía trip is complete without visiting one of its most famous historical landmarks: the Alhambra. You will have the option of exclusive access to this fascinating 10th century structure, as it will open its doors just for your party. In the evening, dinner will be served at a restaurant with views of the Alhambra lit up at night.

Córdoba (1 night)

Your luxury Andalucía tour continues with a private transfer to Córdoba where you can see the city highlights including a stroll through the famed Jewish quarter of the city and visit an old synagogue with your private guide. Later, learn about the famous Jewish philosopher of the region, Maimonides, as you visit Casa de Sefarad. Following this, enjoy a private guided tour of the famed Mezquita. Please note that both of these visits can be arranged exclusively for your party.

Seville (3 nights)

Enjoy a private transfer to Seville to spend 3 remarkable days discovering the city's rich history and culture. Embark on a family-friendly biking tour of Seville with your personal guide. Later, enjoy a tapas tour with your expert guide.

The following morning, you will have the option to visit Jabujo, a nearby village, to learn about the famed jamón ibérico of the region. You will have an exclusive tour of C5J, the best Iberian ham company in the region. Alternatively, visit the town of Jerez and enjoy the celebrated Jerez equestrian show from your VIP seats. Another option for your day excursion is a visit to a private bull farm to witness the famous fighting bulls grazing in the field as they are prepped for their bullfight. Upon your return to Seville, watch a flamenco show at the Flamenco History Museum. You will have the opportunity to meet the dancers backstage after the show.

On your last day, experience a private guided tour of Seville's highlights including the Alcazar and the Cathedral, both UNESCO World Heritage Sites. In the afternoon, take advantage of the luxurious amenities of your hotel including an outdoor pool.

Ronda (2 nights)

Reach Ronda by private transfer as you drive through a series of towns and large villages known as the Pueblos Blancos or 'White Villages'. Ernest Hemingway spent many summers in his house in Ronda's old town quarter called La Ciudad. He wrote about Ronda's beauty and famous bullfighting traditions, and was inspired by Andalusian history and culture. Stay at Ronda Parador where you will enjoy spectacular views from your suite. After lunch at a restaurant overlooking the city, begin your guided sightseeing tour of Ronda. You will go on a gentle hike through the outskirts of Ronda.

The next day, begin your private biking excursion with your expert guide from Ronda towards Setenil, a charming white village. Along the way, take in great views of the mountain range and countryside that surround the city. Enjoy lunch at Setenil followed by a private transfer back to Ronda to relax for the afternoon. On the last day of your luxury Andalucía tour, you will be privately transferred to Málaga for your international flight departure.

ABOUT BLUE PARALLEL

Blue Parallel is a bespoke luxury travel boutique.

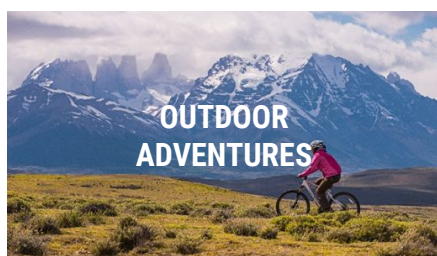

Our mission is to take discerning, time-constrained travelers to the most spectacular natural and cultural wonders of Latin America, the Mediterranean, and the Polar Regions.

We create private, tailor-made journeys that focus on UNESCO World Heritage Sites, insider access experiences, and extraordinary outdoor adventures.

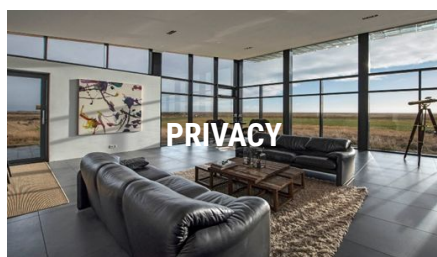

Since launching in 2003, we have become the go-to service for luxury travelers searching for top-of-the-line experiential journeys. We have been selected as an A-list Top Travel Advisor by Travel + Leisure every year since 2009, and are proudly part of the leading luxury travel network Virtuoso and their Ultraluxe Community (a by-invitation-only membership for the industry's most exclusive services and providers). We have hosted numerous eminent travelers since our inception and are frequently featured in prestigious international publications.

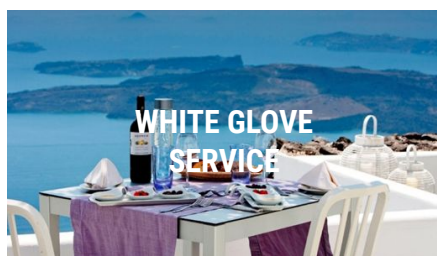

Blue Parallel journeys feature breathtaking outdoor adventures led by expert guides or accomplished athletes. Scuba diving in the Belize Reef, biking through Berber villages in the Atlas Mountains, ice-trekking on the Perito Moreno Glacier, dog sledding in Lapland, rafting on the Pacuare River in Costa Rica, and hiking the fjords of Norway are only a few examples of the extraordinary outdoor adventures we incorporate in our tailor-made itineraries. We take great satisfaction in designing custom-made adventures of a lifetime.

At Blue Parallel, we open doors to unique opportunities that match our travelers' interests. Our team travels year-round, seeking out the most intriguing insider experiences. Over the years, we have developed invaluable relationships with esteemed scholars, acclaimed artists, Olympic athletes, renowned chefs, directors of historical and natural landmarks, as well as with local leaders in politics and business, to name just a few examples.

Privacy has always been a top priority in all aspects of a Blue Parallel journey. Exclusive accommodations range from remote, fully-serviced villas in Iceland, a lighthouse on a private island in Norway, or a luxury private camp in the Sahara Desert. Examples of private custom experiences include an after-hours tour of the Alhambra in Andalusia, chartering a luxury yacht in the Galapagos Islands, or taking a private train ride to Machu Picchu. We can provide all these ultimate exclusive experiences and more so that our travelers can have the option to enjoy some of the world's most spectacular sights without the crowds.

Blue Parallel travelers are assigned a dedicated team comprised of:

- A personal travel expert
- A personal host in each destination
- Expert on-site guides and scholars
- Behind-the-scenes logistical experts to monitor every step of the journey

We are on call for our travelers 24-hours a day during their trip, ensuring a smooth and stress-free experience. Whatever happens, our team is one step ahead, and we provide the flexibility to change the program during the journey, if need be.

CERTAINTY IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Blue Parallel's expertise and our obsession with details offer certainty in an uncertain world. We have almost 2 decades of experience handling unforeseen circumstances, and the recent pandemic has only increased the significant value of having our dedicated teams offer limitless support to our travelers before, during, and after their journeys.
