CHILE LUXURY TOURS

Natural wonders of Chile, a land of Ice and Fire

JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Explore the magnificent landscapes of this diverse country from north to south during a Chile luxury tour. The private tour begins in the northern part of the country, as you visit the Atacama Desert. Although one of the driest regions in the world, Atacama boasts abundant wildlife and incredible opportunities for hiking, biking, and horseback riding. In the evenings, you will have the chance to peer at the heavens guided by a professional astronomer. Next, your tailor-made tour of Chile continues in Santiago, the country's modern capital city. Enjoy a panoramic view of the Andes from San Cristobal hill before visiting the cultural and historical highlights of the city. Lastly, head to the remote southern region of Patagonia. After arriving at your luxurious lodge with a privileged location near Torres del Paine National Park, spend the following days exploring the region's best trails. Our favorites include the less crowded hike to Paso D'Agostini or a gentle hike to the Horns Lookout Point, passing by scenic waterfalls on the way. The highlight for active travelers is the strenuous yet-rewarding hike to the Base of the Towers for impressive, up-close views of the Paine Massif. Depending on your preferences, it is also possible to organize biking, horseback riding, or boating excursions. Relax at your comfortable lodge in the afternoons and evenings, enjoying the property's amenities and luxurious spa area.

Atacama Desert (3 nights)

Following your morning international arrival into Santiago, receive airport assistance as you connect with your 2-hour domestic flight to the Atacama Desert. Upon arrival to northern Chile, your host will take you to one of our preferred lodges, either Nayara Alto Atacama, Awasi Atacama, or Explora Atacama. During your time here, enjoy the tranquility of the high mountain desert and its serene surroundings, which allow for unforgettable adventures in otherworldly landscapes.

As experts in the region, we will provide you with exciting excursion recommendations based on your interests and fitness level. Our favorites include: hiking in the Moon Valley, mountain biking in the Catarpe Valley to the Devil's Throat, and visiting the Atacama Salt flats at sunset to witness its resident flamingos. We can also arrange for you to experience some of the best stargazing in the world with a professional astronomer.

No luxury Atacama tour is complete without some downtime. Relax in your lodge's pool, indulge in a massage or spa treatment, and unwind with a glass of wine as you enjoy delicious Chilean meals in the evenings.

Santiago (2 nights)

Accompanied by your host, a private transfer will take you to the airport in Calama for your domestic flight to Santiago. The modern metropolis of Santiago offers fantastic restaurants and is home to bohemian neighborhoods. Your tailor-made Santiago tour can include any or all of the following: the Plaza de Armas with its 18th-century cathedral in the heart of the city, Constitution Plaza and La Moneda Palace (the seat of executive power), the Chilean Museum of Pre-Columbian Art, and the attractive neighborhoods of París-Londres and Santa Lucía. You may also visit La Chascona, the private home of Pablo Neruda, Chile's most celebrated writer, and the San Cristóbal lookout point, a popular hangout spot for locals with breathtaking views over Santiago.

In the evenings, we will recommend top Chilean restaurants for fresh seafood paired with fantastic regional wines. For food lovers, we can arrange a unique culinary experience at the private kitchen of a local chef who will teach you about Chilean culture through the country's typical dishes.

Torres del Paine (4 nights)

Head to the airport in Santiago for your domestic flight to Chilean Patagonia. Upon your arrival into Punta Arenas or Puerto Natales, you will be transferred in private to one of our preferred luxury lodges.

During your stay, choose from various outdoor adventures (in private or in a small group). You will have the opportunity to enjoy the incredible natural beauty of the park as well as its wildlife, which includes condors and guanacos. As experts in the region, we will provide you with exciting excursion recommendations based on your interests and fitness level, such as the hike to the base of the Towers or a day in the French Valley of the National Park.

After a long day of discovery and exploration in the wilderness, unwind with a relaxing massage and enjoy an outdoor jacuzzi with expansive views of the Torres del Paine mountain range and the valley with animals grazing nearby. Spend the last evening of your private Patagonia tour delighting in a gourmet meal accompanied by vintage Chilean wines.

On your final morning, take a private transfer to the airport in Patagonia, where you will be assisted with boarding your flight to Santiago de Chile to catch your international flight home.

ABOUT BLUE PARALLEL

Blue Parallel is a bespoke luxury travel boutique.

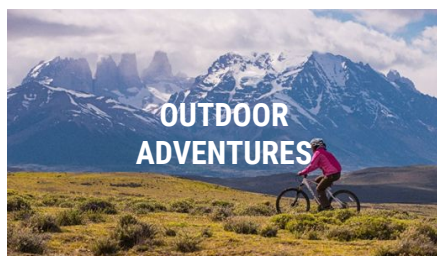

Our mission is to take discerning, time-constrained travelers to the most spectacular natural and cultural wonders of Latin America, the Mediterranean, and the Polar Regions.

We create private, tailor-made journeys that focus on UNESCO World Heritage Sites, insider access experiences, and extraordinary outdoor adventures.

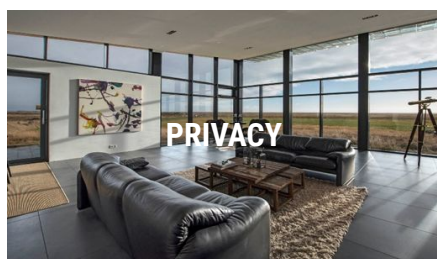

Since launching in 2003, we have become the go-to service for luxury travelers searching for top-of-the-line experiential journeys. We have been selected as an A-list Top Travel Advisor by Travel + Leisure every year since 2009, and are proudly part of the leading luxury travel network Virtuoso and their Ultraluxe Community (a by-invitation-only membership for the industry's most exclusive services and providers). We have hosted numerous eminent travelers since our inception and are frequently featured in prestigious international publications.

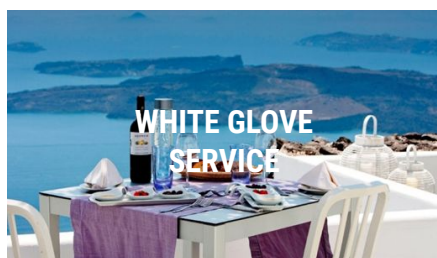

Blue Parallel journeys feature breathtaking outdoor adventures led by expert guides or accomplished athletes. Scuba diving in the Belize Reef, biking through Berber villages in the Atlas Mountains, ice-trekking on the Perito Moreno Glacier, dog sledding in Lapland, rafting on the Pacuare River in Costa Rica, and hiking the fjords of Norway are only a few examples of the extraordinary outdoor adventures we incorporate in our tailor-made itineraries. We take great satisfaction in designing custom-made adventures of a lifetime.

At Blue Parallel, we open doors to unique opportunities that match our travelers' interests. Our team travels year-round, seeking out the most intriguing insider experiences. Over the years, we have developed invaluable relationships with esteemed scholars, acclaimed artists, Olympic athletes, renowned chefs, directors of historical and natural landmarks, as well as with local leaders in politics and business, to name just a few examples.

Privacy has always been a top priority in all aspects of a Blue Parallel journey. Exclusive accommodations range from remote, fully-serviced villas in Iceland, a lighthouse on a private island in Norway, or a luxury private camp in the Sahara Desert. Examples of private custom experiences include an after-hours tour of the Alhambra in Andalusia, chartering a luxury yacht in the Galapagos Islands, or taking a private train ride to Machu Picchu. We can provide all these ultimate exclusive experiences and more so that our travelers can have the option to enjoy some of the world's most spectacular sights without the crowds.

Blue Parallel travelers are assigned a dedicated team comprised of:

- A personal travel expert
- A personal host in each destination
- Expert on-site guides and scholars
- Behind-the-scenes logistical experts to monitor every step of the journey

We are on call for our travelers 24-hours a day during their trip, ensuring a smooth and stress-free experience. Whatever happens, our team is one step ahead, and we provide the flexibility to change the program during the journey, if need be.

CERTAINTY IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Blue Parallel's expertise and our obsession with details offer certainty in an uncertain world. We have almost 2 decades of experience handling unforeseen circumstances, and the recent pandemic has only increased the significant value of having our dedicated teams offer limitless support to our travelers before, during, and after their journeys.
